THE INDIAN SOCIETY OF VICTIMOLOGY

The ISV was established in August 1992 and was formally inaugurated by the eminent jurist Hon'ble Mr. Justice V.R. Krishna Iyer, Former Judge of the Supreme Court of India, in September 1992 through the efforts of the then Head of the Department Prof. K. Chockalingam in the University of Madras. The ISV was established with the objective of advocating the cause of victims of crime and abuse of power in India and to some extent it has been realized. As of today, it has about 400 members. During the last 22 years, the ISV has organized several symposia, seminars, and conferences on various victimological issues. One of the significant contributions of the ISV was the preparation of draft victim legislation, with the support of the National Law School of India University, Bangalore, and the National Human Rights Commission in 1996 through an intensive workshop organized in Chennai. The Committee on the Reforms of Criminal Justice System constituted by the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs, in November 2000 to consider measures for revamping the criminal justice system also recommended the draft bill prepared by ISV for consideration. Even for the introduction of the State Victim Assistance Fund by the Government of Tamil Nadu in 1995, the ISV served as a catalyst. The dream of ISV to have a national-level victim compensation law through its recommendation in a seminar on victim compensation as early as in 1993 has been realized by the introduction of the provisions of victim compensation throughout India through the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 2008. Therefore, with a sense of humility, the ISV feels proud that the victim rights as enshrined in the UN Declaration of Victims, 1985, are gradually becoming a reality in India. Presently, the Indian Society of Victimology is chaired by Prof. (Dr.) G.S. Bajpai, Registrar, National Law University Delhi with Dr. M. Priyamvada, Indian Society of Victimology, University of Madras, as a General Secretary.
