NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY DELHI
PROJECT 39-A
(FAIR TRIAL FELLOWSHIP PROGRAMME)

Date: - August 09, 2019

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: 'Multiple Positions' for 'Fair Trial Fellowship'

Position: The National Law University, Delhi ("University") is seeking to engage two Researchers and one Social Worker on contractual basis (for the below mentioned positions) for a research study on 'Preliminary Assessments by Juvenile Justice Boards under the JJ Act, 2015' (the Study). The Study is being conducted under Project 39A's Fair Trial Fellowship Programme (Programme), which is supported by a grant from the Azim Premji Philanthropic Initiatives (APPI).

About the programme: The Programme commenced in August 2018 and has established a Fellowship programme to support empanelled legal aid lawyers under the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) framework. Between Nagpur and Pune, the Fellowship currently comprises 2 Legal Strategy Coordinators, 20 Legal Fellows and 10 Social Work Fellows, who provide support to the DLSA in providing legal representation to undertrials in Yerwada Central Prison, Pune and Nagpur Central Prison. The twin goals of the programme are to reduce the undertrial population in prisons in Pune and Nagpur and to work with the legal aid system in Maharashtra. To this end, the programme includes a research as well as a litigation component. The Programme currently has offices in Pune and Nagpur. The programme staff comprises a Programme Director, two Legal Strategy Co-ordinators, 20 Legal Fellows and 10 Social Work Fellows.

Scope of Study: The Study aims to analyse all orders passed by the Juvenile Justice Boards after a preliminary assessment was conducted in respect of a Child in Conflict with Law alleged to have committed a 'heinous' offence in Maharashtra from the time of coming into force of the JJ Act, 2015 i.e., 15 January 2016 until 30 June 2019.
