

KAIROS '16

We take immense pleasure in inviting your institution to KAIROS 2016, the literary and cultural festival of National Law University, Delhi, being held between 4th to 6th March, 2016.

KAIROS 2015, the second edition of our fest was a celebration of the varied shades of art, culture, literature and music. It witnessed participation from institutions across India with a brilliant display of talent along with an exciting music extravaganza which included a soulful, aural delight by Prateek Kuhad, the refreshing blend of Jamaican pop and groovy dance music by Ska Vengers, and the enthralling music of Advaita.

KAIROS 2016 is the third edition of NLU-Delhi's annual literary and cultural festival. Themed on "Carnival", this year's fest promises to be a riot of colours, music, dance and delightful food. Members of your institution will experience a diverse range of events, including dance contests, music performances, fine and performing arts contests, and literary events.

They will also have the opportunity of attending three pro-nights that showcase the talent of amateur and professional musicians and artistes from across India.

From music that will get you dancing to scintillating, soul-stirring performances by musicians from across the country – the three nights promise to be an unprecedented celebration of music. The first two nights will witness explosive DJs and exceptional artists performing to make your experience truly unforgettable. From EDM to Bollywood tunes, we promise you the best of dance music. The last and final night will be graced with the cacophonous synergy of upcoming college bands/artistes followed by a professional Indian rock band to create one of the best rock concerts of 2016 in a bid to chase some really promising incentives! We are looking forward to seeing the members of your institution at KAIROS 2016.

Please consider this a pre-invite to KAIROS 2016. An events brochure will reach you shortly.
