

NLU Delhi is hosting the second India Qualifying Rounds of the International Criminal Court (ICC) Moot Court Competition from March 16th to March 18th, 2017. The Indian Qualifying Rounds will see participation of more than 25 teams from law universities across India, and 4 teams will proceed to international rounds which is held annually at The Hague, Netherlands.

NLU Delhi is extremely glad to partner with the Organizing Committee of the ICC Moot Court Competition and the Grotius Centre for International Legal Studies at Leiden University to organize the National Rounds. The ICC Moot encourages students to study the working of the International Criminal Court, which becomes extremely pertinent in the current global context.

Indian teams have done extremely well at the international rounds, consistently reaching the finals every year along with winning the moot in 2014.

The moot problem for the 2018 edition deals with human trafficking, corporate criminal liability and double jeopardy, and it may be accessed here.

We look forward to welcoming you in New Delhi next year for the National Rounds, and we hope you keep India's flag flying at Den Haag.
