

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY DELHI
CENTRE ON THE DEATH PENALTY

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS- CONSULTANT (DESIGNER)

Date: 03rd Nov 2017

The National Law University, Delhi ('University') is seeking to engage two consultants (designers) to work with and further the aims of the Centre on the Death Penalty. The contract will be for a period of 8 months.

About the Centre:

The Centre is established under the aegis of the University and was set up in August 2014 to undertake litigation, research and outreach related to the death penalty. The Centre provides pro bono legal representation to prisoners sentenced to death in India and engages in strategic litigation challenging procedural and substantive aspects of death penalty in India. The aim of the Centre's research is to generate information, through empirical and doctrinal studies, on issues affecting prisoners sentenced to death in India, analyze the developing jurisprudence on the death penalty in India and other jurisdictions, and undertake comparative research to add to the current understanding and debate around the death penalty. Currently, the Centre has 17 full-time Research Associates in litigation, research and public affairs roles, in addition to the Director of the Centre and Administrative staff.

Given the centre's expansive work across research, litigation and public outreach, there is a continuous requirement for the designing of reports, brochures, event collaterals and publications. Due to this constant requisite, the Centre is seeking to hire two designers as consultants.

Responsibilities:

- A. Creative input relating to the Centre's communication material
- B. Develop a holistic and cohesive identity for the Centre
- C. Design the centre's research publications and outreach material.
- D. Any other work that may be necessary to fulfill the Centre's objectives.

Qualifications:

- A. Graduate in graphic and communication design
- B. Minimum two years' experience of working with a reputed graphic design firm
- C. Availability to complete the assignment by July 2018.
- D. Prior experience of conceptualising and designing social science materials would be preferred

Compensation:

Remuneration will be commensurate with qualifications and experience and will be approximately in the range of Rs. 40,000-45,000 per month.

Duration of the Contract:

The contract will be for a period of 8 months. An extension may be possible subject to the availability of funds.

Application Process:

Interested persons may send their resume and portfolio of their work.

Email:

Please send your resume and portfolio of work to the deathpenalty@nludelhi.ac.in The subject of the e-mail should be “Centre on the Death Penalty- Application for Consultant (Designer)” The cover letter must state (Attn: Director, Centre on the Death Penalty.)

The University reserves the right to conduct interviews and also to not fill these positions. The University will be unable to cover the costs for attending the interview but the possibility of a telephonic/video interview can be explored.

Deadline: Applications must reach us by midnight on the 17th November 2017. Applications received after this date will not be considered. Interviews for shortlisted candidates may be conducted around 22nd -23rd November 2017.

Note:

1. The Centre works on behalf of all prisoners sentenced to death, regardless of the offence involved.
2. National Law University, Delhi is an equal opportunity employer.
3. The position in this call is supported from funds across three grants, namely Fund for Global Human Rights, European Union and the Oak Foundation
